Dear [REDACTED]

Planning Enforcement Report
Land Adjacent To 53, Hawthorn Close, Hitchin, Hertfordshire,

Please quote the following reference: 26/00147/1ENF on all correspondence.

I acknowledge receipt of your recent enquiry concerning the above location and I thank you for bringing this to our attention.

The matter you have raised will be investigated by [REDACTED] who will contact you shortly.

Please note that we aim to update you at the key stages set out below:

After the site visit and the next steps have been established.

If a retrospective application has been submitted – this will allow you to view and comment on the application, if you wish to.

Where it is considered expedient to take enforcement action and formal action has been taken.

When the investigation has ended, and the case closed.

We may also ask you to provide further information as part of the investigation.

Most breaches of planning control can be resolved through negotiation, although even where formal action is taken, this can take time to resolve. Please also note that case priority is subject to change.

We are grateful for your patience while waiting for information. However, if you have not heard from us within six weeks, please email us on planning.enforcement@north-herts.gov.uk

Yours faithfully

Planning Enforcement Team
North Herts District Council
